Dr. G. W. Jensen was re-elected president; William Brook, vice president; Leonard Roblin, secretary; H. E. Shepard, assistant secretary; Normal Jedele, treasurer; and Robert Jensen, assistant treasurer.

Irving Carey and Robert Jensen will comprise the operations committee; Norman Jedele and Leonard Roblin, the finance committee; H. E. Shepard and William Brook, the promotion committee.

Banquet on March 24
Announcement was made that the annual Athletic Banquet for Antioch Township High School will be held March 24 with Vincent Lloyd, Chicago T-V sports announcer, serving as speaker.

The committee in charge of the banquet comprises Charles Larson, Edward Zerr, William Hansen, Loren Sexauer, and A. L. Dittman. The Lions were addressed by Dr. James Kopriva on the complex character of President Abraham Lincoln. He discussed Lincoln's ability as a politician, a military strategist, a forceful writer, and his philosophy of life.

"Although Lincoln was a man of sorrows, nevertheless he liked and could tell a good joke," said Dr. Kopriva.

The Antioch Lions Club will join Grayslake and Fox Lake Lions Clubs in helping the Gurnee Lions sponsor the new Lions Club at Lake Villa.

Antioch Lions club members and wives will attend the Lake Villa Club's Charter and Ladies' night on March 1.

Meeting at Lake Villa February 19 to Study Unit School System

School Board There to Host Boards of A.T.H.S. Feeder Schools

A meeting of the school boards whose schools are feeders to Antioch Township High School will be held at the Lake Villa Grade School Wednesday, Feb. 19 to discuss the unit school system.

Harry Pavel, president of the Lake Villa Board of Education, extended the invitation to the school administrators on behalf of his Board, and has asked Robert Denman, chairman of the general committee in charge of the recent survey to invite members of the committee to be present.

The Boards will study the committee's report and decide upon what action should be taken.

There is a strong feeling for an immediate move to form the unit district before the school building problem becomes worse.

The greatest objection is coming from Grayslake High School district which would lose some of its territory, and in Newport township where there is a move to form a unit district of its own.

In the meantime the trend toward a unit district grows. Warren Township will soon study the unit system from the standpoint of curriculum. Teachers will form discussion groups led by experts in certain phases of study.

The two were driving east on Grand avenue in Fox Lake on their way home from the Towne Theatre in that village. At Highview avenue the car skidded on its way down hill and turned sideways into the path of the westbound car driven by David Lee Bushing, 21, of 856 Main st., Ingleside. ## Sequoits Play Ela, Round Lk. Panthers Friday and Saturday

Lose to Warren There 79-63, Frosh-Soph Also Lose 47 to 42

A rugged week-end with Ela-Vernon and Round-Lake are ahead for Antioch Township High School's varsity and frosh-soph teams.

The Sequoits will play the Bears at Lake Zurich and then return home to play Round Lake. They have taken the measurements of both teams before, but the question will be, can they do it again? "They can if they will quit making the same old mistakes," says Coach Larry Leon.

The mistakes he referred to were those that cost the Sequoits their game with Warren there 79-63 last Friday night.

There may be changes in the lineup.

Antioch and Warren played on fairly even terms the first half and even into the third quarter, but succumbed in the final quarter to the Bluedevil full court press.

Threadgill, Warren guard, and Herbst, Antioch, tied for scoring honors with 21 points apiece, but it was the Warren guard's defensive play besides his offense that meant the difference between the two teams.

Dittmer fouled out in the final quarter, but the game was lost before that. Warren took advantage of every Sequoit mistake to capitalize in the scoring.

New Voting Precinct Adds to Contest for G.O.P. Committeemen

No. 6 Polling Place to Be at Emmons School, Two Contests

Creation of a new voting precinct—No. 6, carved from four of the five other precincts in Antioch Township was announced yesterday by Supervisor Lloyd Murrie.

The polling place will be at Emmons school.

Supervisor Murrie said that the new precinct was formed when the number of voters at other precincts became too large.

The change caused a vacancy for Republican committeeman in Precinct 1 because Dan Lightsey became a resident of the new precinct. He is said to have withdrawn and Fred Zeason of Loon Lake is a candidate for the post in Precinct 6. Zeason is a deputy sheriff.

A contest has arisen in Precinct 1 with Howard Gaston of 481 Orchard st. opposed for Republican committeeman by R. G. (Bud) Holtz, proprietor of the local tavern. Two other prospective candidates withdrew.

Charles Larson again is the Republican candidate unopposed for Precinct 2, and Paul Wanthall is unopposed for Precinct 3.

Mrs. Helen Burke, committeeman incumbent in Precinct 4, will be opposed by Rudolph Strametz. Henry Pape in Precinct 5 will be unopposed for re-election.

There are no contests for Democratic precinct committeemen, and three of the precinct posts are vacant.

Rev. Howard Benson To Organize Church At Hoffman Estates

The Rev. Howard Benson, minister of the Antioch Methodist church, has been assigned to organize a new community church at Hoffman Estates on Rte. 72 at Higgins road, seven miles southwest of Palatine.

He accepted the offer of Bishop Charles Brashares last week and expects to take up his new duties in the next two or three weeks. A residence has been selected for Mr. Benson and his family, but the purchase has not been completed.

Hoffman Estates is a new subdivision of 1,000 homes, with plans for 500 more residences this year. It is one of the fastest growing areas in the Chicago district.

Just when the district superintendent Birger Dahl will call him to his new task, Mr. Benson doesn't yet know but he believes it will be soon. He will continue his pastorate here until that time.

Another minister will be appointed immediately to take Mr. Benson's place, but Charles Watson, chairman of the pastoral relations committee has no word yet as to who he will be.

The Rev. Mr. Benson came to Antioch five years ago. Since his coming here he has married and he and Mrs. Benson have a son, Paul, aged 9 months. They have many friends who regret their leaving.

A farewell potluck supper will be given at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow (Friday) by the congregation at the church.

Don't Delay Salk Shots!

Salk vaccine is now stockpiled on druggists' shelves. But it won't be there much longer. When the Mothers' March on Polio takes place at the end of the month, we can anticipate a stampede for vaccine as happened last January. Mothers' March volunteers will hand-deliver a vital vaccine message to all households explaining the need for every family member to get vaccinated against paralytic polio. Thirty million cards will be distributed across the nation.

Every man, woman and child among us should be heartened to learn that cases of this paralytic disease dropped sharply in 1957. Less than 6,000 new cases were reported. This is a record low for the nation and welcome relief from recent epidemic years.

The decline is credited largely to wide use of Salk vaccine, created and developed during the past 20 years of continuous research supported by our personal contributions to the March of Dimes. Successful mass vaccination programs for children and adults were a major health activity in many communities last year. As a result of this effort 64 million people received one or more Salk shots.

What about the other millions—the 45 million Americans under age 40 who have not yet received any vaccine protection against paralytic polio?

Unless they take action now, they will be just as susceptible to paralytic polio as all of us were before the March of Dimes gave the world a safe and effective vaccine against polio. The time taken now to make an appointment with your doctor for Salk shots can prevent years of physical disability and needless suffering.

Call your doctor today.

Guns Slathered With Butter

The old saying about having our cake and eating it too has taken on a new and deep significance.

There is no doubt whatsoever that military spending is due for a big jump—perhaps much bigger than the President indicated in his budget message. And, along with this, there is considerable doubt whether non-defense spending will be materially reduced in any direction.

Those who want the government to everlastingly take on more and more responsibilities, at everlastingly increasing costs, are mobilizing now. A last ditch fight will be made to get maximum appropriations for welfare, grants to states, socialized power projects, greater farm subsidies, pork-barrels as usual, and all manner of handouts.

If this fight is successful, the nation will face two choices. One is higher taxes on top of already staggering taxes. The other is deficit financing and a further cheapening of the dollar—that is, more inflation.

This isn't a question of whether we shall have guns or butter. It is a question of whether vast gobs of political butter will be slathered onto the guns. Economic undermining of this country would serve the Soviets as surely as military undermining. Never did a Congress, an Administration or the people face plainer facts. Will they recognize them and act accordingly or will they continue on the road to bankruptcy via inflation?

"Jayhawk Editor"

The "Country Weekly" is typical of the United States. It is the voice of the local community. In the 48 states there are over 11,000 weekly and smaller city daily newspapers.

The "Country Press" gains in stature as the years roll by. Nothing else in the world duplicates its service. It is a living record of community life—births, marriages, deaths, local events, news and legal statistics. Its editorial opinions are a guidepost for consideration of political issues and local problems.

Representing the highest traditions of the "Country Weekly" is the Belleville, Kansas, Telescope, established in 1870. And hereby hangs a tale.

Active editor and publisher for over 60 years, A. Q. Miller, Sr., is now co-publisher of the Telescope after turning it over to his journalistic sons who have followed their father in keeping it one of the outstanding weekly newspapers of the country with many honors to its credit. In addition, they are active in publishing 7 other weekly and one daily paper.

Now in his eighties, Mr. Miller continues his activities in journalistic and public life. His book, "Jayhawk Editor," recently published by Sterling Press, Los Angeles, is a monument to the country editors of the nation. From printer's devil to owner of weekly papers in Kansas when the railroads were reaching into the western states, Mr. Miller's biography is virtually a motion picture of events, which are unfamiliar to most younger editors today.

To an older newspaper man who knows what it meant to set a stick of type, or mix flour/paste for single wrappers, the book is a delight to read. For the younger generation it gives insight into the character and courage that goes into individually owned papers which keep the meaning of free press and free speech untarnished in this country. "Jayhawk Editor" is a must for country editors to read—it will make them proud to be one of the clan.

Medicine in the Years Ahead

As usual, all manner of prognostications have appeared with the new year. A significant one is found in the January 4 issue of the Journal of American Medical Association. Written by Dr. Julian P. Price, a practicing physician and an AMA trustee, it forecasts some of the changes that will take place in medicine in the next 30 years.

The trend toward specialization will continue, in Dr. Price's view. There will be an increase in group practices in clinics which are staffed and equipped to furnish complete care for the ambulatory patient. At the same time, a new type of general practitioner will emerge to care for those who want individual physicians for themselves and their families. His work will consist of internal medicine, pediatrics and psychiatry, with office procedures in orthopedics, gynecology and surgery.

The hospital building program will continue, with the emphasis on more hospitals in suburban areas and the smaller communities of the country. The large metropolitan hospitals will add special wings for the care of the convalescent, the chronically ill, and the patient who needs rehabilitation.

On the scientific side of medicine, there will also be many changes. Due to the increasing number of older people, degenerative diseases will become of greater and greater concern to the physician. Most of the communicable diseases, tuberculosis included, will probably be eradicated. Lukemia and certain types of cancer will be curable. Diabetes will be treated without injections. Various mental diseases will be controlled through drugs. There will be better understanding of all manner of physical plagues—arteriosclerosis, coronary disease, hypertension, and so on. And electronics and atomic energy will be used extensively in the diagnosis and treatment of disease.

It is a bright prospect that Dr. Price presents. And there can be small doubt that independent private medicine will achieve these and many other great goals.

Incentive Pay Plan Will Improve Teaching Jobs Says Ill. State C. of C.

CHICAGO — Rewarding superior teachers through an incentive pay plan will do more to improve the teaching profession than any amount of verbal recognition.

This is the major conclusion in a study of merit pay plans in schools throughout the country released by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

School people in communities which have incentive plans insist that these programs are worth while. Moreover, the Chamber maintains that "it is inconsistent to emphasize the importance of the individual child and then treat the teachers en masse salarywise, ignoring their individual contributions."

After analyzing a wide variety of salary programs for encouraging outstanding teaching, the State Chamber's Education Committee contacted school superintendents in 49 representative school systems which either have adopted incentive pay plans or considered them in recent years.

Comments from the school officials reflect the conflict of opinion. A former Oak Park school superintendent said, "Our first activity should be to get the general wage program up to a genuinely professional level—then we can talk merit on the basis of additional income to, perhaps, 20 to 25 per cent of the general wage."

An out-of-state school official, who had administered a merit pay plan for four years, replied, "Our career salary plan has been an incentive for better teaching, and we are getting better results than before we adopted the plan."

The reply which probably best summarizes the arguments favoring merit pay plans came from a Barrington school administrator who declared, "There is nothing more important than to pay unequals equal salaries."

Most school systems base teacher salaries on individual training and experience. It is apparent that very few take into account other important factors such as superior teaching, dependencies and cost-of-living changes, the Chamber's study observes.

From its analysis of successful merit plans, the State Chamber pinpointed several common characteristics. For one, a majority of the plans are based on a set of predetermined criteria, established in cooperation with the teaching force, to identify outstanding teaching service.

Criteria most frequently cite unusual ability to impart skills and knowledge, dependability, participation in school and community affairs, and a variety of personal qualifications such as creativeness, enthusiasm and professional attitude.

Secondly, adoption of a plan is accomplished only after careful consideration and agreement by a majority of the teachers. Also, most

Passing on Hills and Curves

How do most drivers behave in regard to passing on curves? Not so well, according to a 1957 survey by the Institute for Safer Living. Only 60 out of every 100 stated that they never passed under any conditions. Forty out of 100 advised that if traffic were light, they would and did pass on curves. About the same figures hold true among drivers quizzed about passing on hills.

able. Taxpayers with a problem or two may call the Internal Revenue offices for a quick answer to enable them to complete the preparation of their returns.

"The 'self-help' program has now been in effect about three years," Mr. Long said, "and we believe that more and more taxpayers are becoming familiar with the requirements for preparing correct income tax returns. Essentially, 'self-help' means that taxpayers complete as much of their returns as possible before asking help from us. Most taxpayers can do the whole job after a careful reading of the form itself and the accompanying instruction booklet."

Objections Raised to Zoning Change of Lot At Schaefer's, Petite L.

Fifteen residents of Blunt Park and Beechwood subdivisions represented by Atty. Ted C. Larson, protested to the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals in Antioch Monday the granting of a B-2 classification for one of three lots sought by Mrs. Catherine Schaefer and son, Walter, at Petite lake. The hearing was in the Village Hall.

Atty. LaVerne Dixon, Waukegan, told the Board that back in 1939 lots 13 and 15 in Blunt Park were zoned for business, but that lot 14, probably through oversight, remained zoned residential.

Objectors heard members of the Board comment that most lots on the lake were zoned for business, but they contended that they feared that granting another B-2 zoning classification could create a trend.

The Board will make its recommendation to the Board of Supervisors on Feb. 11.

Powers L. Sportsmen Plan Fishing Derby; Re-elect 1957 Officers

Members of the Powers Lake Sportsman's Club held their annual meeting at the Wheatland Center School. They re-elected Ed Koukol, president; Jerry Robinson, vice president; Robert Volbrecht, secretary-treasurer; and Rollie Burmeister to a three year term on the club board of directors.

There were final plans made for the Ice Fishing Derby which will be held on Powers Lake from dawn until 4 p. m. on Sunday, Feb. 2. It was decided to erect a tent on the east end of the lake, where lunch will be served all day and also the fish headquarters.

In a business session of the club it was voted to re-hire Hugo Rosenhauer to supervise its 1958 pheasant rearing program. A report by the project committee disclosed that work on the expansion of the club's bird-rearing facilities indicated that brooder houses and pens are in the final stages of completion.

The facilities will permit the club to raise 1,400 pheasant chicks during the coming summer season. The report on the project revealed that the club is seeking an innovation in connection with the 1958 releases. Under the proposal, members will seek to hold the male pheasants until they are 10 weeks old; hens in the flock would be retained until the spring of 1959 when they would be released to assure their survival for the nesting season.

Also included in the series of project reports was a discussion of the walleye pike rearing project of the club. The club, under state supervision, used Figure Eight pond at Nippersink for the rearing of fingerling pike. While the removal of the fish encountered some difficulty, fish taken from the pond have shown excellent growth. A committee was named to investigate two other ponds, suggested as sites for the development of walleye rearing in the county.

Cites First Aid Value For Accident Victims

When Mrs. Dorothy Zitzewitz and Carl Zitzewitz from Ingleside complete a current five week course for first aid instructors with the Lake County Chapter of the American Red Cross at 308 Julian street, Waukegan, the county will have some 75 first aid instructors available.

According to Robert C. Montour, director of first aid for the Lake County Chapter, requests from many organizations come in daily for Red Cross instruction in first aid. The chapter services these organizations through the volunteer first aid instructors.

Looking at statistics of last year's traffic accidents in Lake County which took 72 lives and injured five times that many, Montour stated that some of those killed would probably be alive today if persons on the scene of the accident had known first aid.

"Most accident victims," he holds, "are completely at the mercy of the first passerby, who is usually filled with pity, but tragically enough, is ignorant of basic facts of first aid principles."

Countless persons die because the wrong thing is done, Montour warns, adding "remembering certain simple and basic facts of first aid could save many people."

Montour emphatically feels that at least one person in every home should be trained in first aid, not only to give proper assistance at the traffic accident scene, but to be prepared when home accidents develop.

First Aid classes are being formed by the Lake County Chapter in all sections of the county. Call the Red Cross at On 2-4044 to enroll.

Your License Plate Your Auto Passport

With your 1958 license plates is enclosed "An Auto Passport." According to Charles F. Carpenter, secretary of state, "Your 1958 license plate is your passport to the highways of America. It enables you to drive from one end of the nation to the other as well as to travel over the highways of Illinois—Land of Lincoln."

"Just as a passport issued by the United States Department of State is a valuable possession, so is your Illinois license plate. Drive safely, heed the rules of the road and the rules of courtesy to protect that possession."

The new Illinois speed limits are for cars, 65 miles per hour; buses, 60 miles per hour; trucks under 4 tons, 55, and trucks over 4 tons, 50 miles per hour.

While an absolute limit is now in effect, remember that the law still states that "reasonable and proper" speeds, speeds below the posted limit, must be maintained if weather, roads or traffic conditions so dictate.

Follow these simple rules when driving and avoid highway accidents and deaths:

1. Be courteous.
2. Observe all speed limits.
3. Obey all traffic signs and signals.
4. Signal when stopping or turning.
5. Be on the alert for children.
6. Do not pass on hills or curves.
7. Do not mix alcohol with gasoline.
8. Be prepared to yield the right-of-way.
9. Do not weave from one lane of traffic to the other.
10. Do not overdrive your lights.

The huge steel sphere and the turbine building for the Commonwealth Edison Public Service Company Dresden Nuclear Power Station are nearing completion. Located on the Illinois waterway, 50 miles southwest of Chicago, the 180,000 kilowatt station will have the largest nuclear power reactor under construction in the country. It is scheduled for operation in 1960. The next step will be to remove the construction derrick from the center of the 190-foot sphere. Then the top and bottom will be capped and the airtight sphere tested to insure it will withstand the specified pressure of 29½ pounds per square inch. Later an opening will be cut in the sphere to permit entry and installation of the boiling water reactor assembly. Dresden is being built by General Electric Company for a contract price of $45,000,000.

Deadline February 15 To Display Auto Plates

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 20—Motor Vehicle registration reached 1,700,000 at the close of business last week, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter said today, but he pointed out this is less than half of the expected total and only four weeks remain before the deadline date of February 15 for displaying plates.

Only two weeks remain for motorists to submit their applications by mail and be sure they will have their plates in time for the deadline, he emphasized. Mail applications should be in the office by Feb. 1. While registrations at present are about 100,000 greater than they were at the same time last year, over-the-counter sales in both Chicago and Springfield are lagging, Secretary Carpenter said. Persons planning to buy their plates at either of those two locations can do so now with a minimum amount of waiting, he said.

Total registration for 1957 was about 3,000,000, and it is estimated the 1958 figure will be in excess of 3,750,000.

Lake County Farm Bureau Explains Stand on Proposed Forest Preserve District

The board of directors of Lake County Farm Bureau recently voted to support the formation of a Forest Preserve District in Lake county.

Eric Anderson, president of the organization, was quick to point out that they recognize the dangers of improper administration of such public projects. The Farm Bureau decided to support this proposal on the strength of assurance by Emmett Moroney, chairman of the Lake County Board of Supervisors that the planning and administration of the Forest Preserve District would take place only as recommended by highly qualified conservation specialists.

The Farm Bureau was also encouraged by the statement of the intention of the Board of Supervisors to enable the Forest Preserve District to acquire suitable tax delinquent tracts through tax sale proceedings. This would serve the multifold purpose of getting delinquent taxes off the books and putting the property to good use, enhancing rather than detracting from the attractiveness of the county.

Acquiring property which isn't bearing its tax responsibility also solves the problem of having to forego future tax income on lands set aside.

The board members feel that with the rapid development of Lake county and its fast growing population there is a definite need for forest preserve tracts to be set aside in Lake county.

The directors recognize that the attractiveness of Lake county has been due to its natural forest and water resources. They feel that some of this natural beauty can be maintained for future generations through the establishment of a forest preserve district in Lake county.

Elbert Elsbury, Farm Bureau director from Warren Township, stated that in the long time planning for Lake County consideration must now be given to the establishment of a Forest Preserve District before it is too late.

TAX FACTS

As Congress prepares to reconvene next Tuesday, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois called attention to the proposed creation of a Joint Committee on the Budget.

This proposal, acted upon favorably by the Senate in the last four sessions, will be before the House of Representatives, which has previously taken no action. Seventy co-sponsors joined Senator John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) in sponsorship of this measure, known as S. 1585, last year.

Members of both Congressional appropriations committees would be assigned places on this proposed joint committee, to be staffed by technically trained experts, investigators and accountants who would work all the year around screening the expenditures of the various government agencies.

In effect, this committee and its staff would get the facts needed to make appropriation cuts that can and should be made in the interest of a more economic and efficient government.

With the dimensions of a large telephone book—containing some 1200 pages—the Federal budget covers thousands of items for all three branches of government. More than 500 employees in the Bureau of the Budget, under the direction of the President, plus some 2,000 Washington area employees in various departments and agencies, work practically full time on this annual matter. This is, of course, only part of the story, for a total number of personnel in the executive branch working on matters pertaining to the budget would probably be impossible to compute accurately. Contrast this with the fact that both appropriations committees have a permanent staff of less than 100 people working on an activity shared by the legislative and executive branches of the government.

"If then, Congress is to do a better job of screening requests for funds it must have, it seems, a professional staff to work with. This proposal should be given careful consideration by citizens generally and members of the House of Representatives in particular," Scott said.

The general sales tax is the largest revenue producer both for the states as a group and for half of the states individually. In fiscal 1957 collections from this source amounted to $3.4 billion, or 23 per cent of all state tax revenues, and exceeded the combined yield of all state taxes in 1940. If the sales tax levies made by local governments, such as cities, are included, the tax yield from this source has now reached $4 billion.

During the 1956-57 biennium sessions of state legislatures no additions were made to the list of state sales tax. Iowa allowed its temporary 2½ per cent rate to drop to 2 per cent. The Governor vetoed legislation to continue the higher rate. Three states—Arkansas, Maine and Rhode Island—increased their sales tax rates from 2 per cent to 3 per cent. However, Arkansas is not certain of its increased rate, because the higher rate will be submitted to the voters in November, 1958.

A number of states broadened the base of the sales tax. Kansas extended its 2 per cent tax to hotel rooms and occasional sales of automobiles. Michigan made its 3 per cent tax applicable to used automobiles. The 3 per cent Florida tax now applies to sales of alcoholic beverages consumed on the premises as well as to cigarettes, motor vehicles and clothing.

The second most important revenue producer in fiscal 1957 for the States was the gasoline tax, producing 19.4 per cent. All automotive taxes, including the gas tax and licenses, accounted for 28.9 per cent, or nearly $3 billion of the states' revenues. The most frequent gasoline tax rate in the states is 6 cents per gallon, effective in 18 states and the District of Columbia. Missouri has the lowest gasoline tax, 3c per gallon.

The "smokers" who provide about 5 per cent of the revenues which go into the states' tills, would have to live in California, Colorado, Maryland, North Carolina, Oregon or Virginia to avoid paying a state cigarette tax. Three of these—Maryland, North Carolina, and Virginia—are tobacco producing states.

U. of I. Food Report

Weekly Summary—Jan. 27—Feb. 1
CHICAGO—Economic theory may be at work in painting this week's Chicago area food picture, but the brush work can be rated as only dismal by metropolitan consumers.

Economists hold that food prices historically move higher in wider ranges, but drop in narrower ranges more frequently than they go up. On this theory things should even out—note the word "should."

Single out weather, however, as one of many contributing factors, and the food situation can be interpreted as follows: Homemakers can save in certain lines that are backing up in supply because of weather, mainly selected meats. But they'll pay more for fresh tender southern produce, which is weather scarce and of poor quality.

On balance, the University of Illinois consumer service weekly survey shows food cost averages for the Chicago area remaining at high levels. Expectations are this will continue until the theory of smaller, more frequent downturns takes hold again—which can come with improved seasonal patterns, changing consumer demand, and other pertinent factors that make markets and prices.

The U. of I. taking all this into consideration comes up with one of its shortest relative value listings, which reads for the week ending Feb. 1:

Pork loin roasts on the basis of sliding wholesale prices; sirloin and porterhouse steaks on the basis of backed up supplies, cold weather demand being off; turkeys because of tremendous storage stocks; large eggs due to steady prices at lower levels; lettuce and apples having escaped the wrath of the weather, and certain processed fruits and vegetables from last season's northern and western harvests, such as peas lower than ever on abundance, pears on dropping prices, and peaches as a continuing bargain.

Secondary poultry meat relative values can include roasting chickens and capons. Fryers are much higher on short supply and stewing hens are scarce at the heavier weights.

Weather has raised prices unseasonably for such fresh produce items as cabbage, carrots, celery, spinach, endive and escarole. Cucumbers, broccoli, green onions and radishes are a few of the small list of moderately priced produce items.

Today's MEDITATION

The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read John 11:47-54

He (Calaphas) prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; and not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. (John 11:51, 52.)

"God has grandchildren" is a startling statement. By writing it, an editorial writer won my open-mouthed attention, just as he knew he would. He went on to show that God has only children.

We are not foster children, or in-laws, or grandsons or granddaughters. We are not mere descendants of the heavenly Father; we are His children.

Sons and daughters carry certain privileges. The children of the household share in all the Father possesses — His insights, into the meaning of life. His concerns about His other children.

As children of God we carry certain responsibilities, too. We strive for the mind of Christ, our brother; we have part in His sufferings. We find that there are exacting requirements for the spiritual gifts we receive. As children of God, we enter into a partnership for God's purposes.

Prayer
My Father, and the Father of all men everywhere, teach me the meaning of sonship. Save me from self-conceit. Keep me from despair, for I fall short of a son's stature. In the name of Him who came to show me the dimensions of Thy fatherhood. Amen.

Thought for the Day
In the family of God a divine radiance surrounds all who are bound together in Christ.

SATELLITES, TOO

Many folks think of us as TV servicers only. Often, we're phoned for home TV service and come out of the house carrying a radio, and maybe a record player, too. It's any guess as to the number of these items which gather dust in basements and attics because they need a small amount of service. Actually, they could be enjoyed by someone in the family.

When you phone Antioch 1454 for services, remember that the ECONOMY TV on rte. 173, 1½ miles west of Antioch is qualified by formal education and training for any kind of electronic maintenance or installation. You'll like our service as your neighbor does.

Show Social Security Numbers on Tax Returns

Taxpayers of the Chicago District were reminded today by District Director H. Alan Long that Social Security numbers should be entered on their Federal income tax returns, Forms 1040 and 1040A, when filing.

"Many returns are filed in which both husband and wife earned income during 1957, and often one of the social security numbers is omitted," Mr. Long said.

"Along with checking other entries on the returns, taxpayers should be very careful to make sure that their social security numbers are complete and accurate.

"Social Security numbers are required whether or not this type of tax has actually been paid, or whether the taxpayer is subject to such taxes. In cases where there have been overpayments of social security taxes due to changes in jobs, computation space is provided for the application of the excess to any income tax owed or to obtain a refund.

"Taxpayers should also see to it that their W-2 withholding statements show their social security numbers."

Ill. Teachers Salaries

CHICAGO — How do Illinois teacher salary scales stack up against those in other states?

For the most part, the teaching profession in Illinois pays better than the national average. But there are soft spots, inconsistencies and unsolved problems, according to a survey released this week by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

Salary schedules are approximately 25 per cent higher than they were in the 1953-54 school year, the survey disclosed. Basis for the Chamber's report are data submitted by superintendents in 342 Illinois school districts and 243 districts in other states.

From the educators' replies, it is evident that much of the difficulty many schools are having in hiring capable teachers can be traced to unattractive salary programs. Small school districts especially are hindered by low pay scales. While they compete successfully with larger districts in the minimum salary range, the study reveals wide variations in the top salary bracket.

This is due, according to the Chamber's Education Department which compiled the report, to the narrow tax base in many of the small school districts. Insufficient revenue prevents these districts from supporting a salary program designed to attract and hold teachers. Solution to the problem lies partly in consolidating and reorganizing many of the small, expensive-to-operate school districts said the Chamber.

For Illinois, the study reveals a salary range from $3,200 to $6,750 in small school districts and from $3,700 to $7,000 in large districts. Moreover, practically all salary schedules are established in terms of experience and training. Median salaries (middle salary in a series) in the various population groups paid to beginning teachers with a bachelor's degree range from $3,700 to $3,900; for beginning teachers with a master's degree, they range from $3,900 to $4,200. In other states, the range is $3,600 to $3,800 for a bachelor's degree and $3,800 to $4,000 for a master's degree.

Median maximum salaries paid to Illinois teachers having a bachelor's degree range from $4,600 to $5,675; to teachers with a master's degree, the range is $5,100 to $6,200. In other states, the range is $5,150 to $6,075 for a bachelor's degree and $5,500 to $6,400 for a master's degree.

The Chamber's report also reveals that:

It takes from 12 to 15 years for most teachers to reach top salary. Most schools provide extra payments for athletic coaching and such additional duties as supervising school newspapers, dramatic productions, etc.

Starting salaries are about the same in small and large school districts, but top salaries are much higher in the large districts.

Despite improvements in teachers' salaries, the Chamber's study

Your Air Force Reporter

By Sgt. John S. Nyberg

A contract has been awarded to North American Aviation Company to build a test model of the Air Force's secret chemically powered bomber. The new aircraft will use new type jet engines and will fly on high-energy metallic compound super fuels which are now being developed.

Scott Crossfield, test pilot and aeronautical engineer for North American may become the world's first spaceman. He is slated to pilot the new X-15 rocket plane into space. When the flight is accomplished, he will be the world's first human space traveler.

A completely new navigation system is being developed at Wright-Patterson Air Development Center. The new method of navigation will plot a course to any point on the globe and continuously compute an airplane's speed, drift and distance to destination.

In 1913, fliers were made happier during their service stints, as a 35 per cent increase over base pay was authorized to officers detailed on aviation duty.

Lieutenant Hillman Robins, US-AF, failed to win the Air Force Golf championship, but went on to take the 1957 Inter-Service crown and the National Amateur title.

The post season clash of Bolling Air Force Base and the San Diego Marines in Galveston's Shrimp Bowl was the only bowl game between undefeated and untied teams. Bolling won 28-7.

ILLINOIS EGG LAW

New regulations of the Illinois egg law do not require farmers to be licensed before selling eggs, according to the Illinois agricultural department.

Director Stillman J. Stanard said there has been much confusion on this point because producers don't fully understand the law. Farmers selling eggs produced on their farms are exempt from candling, labeling and licensing.

In some cases, however, retailers don't want to assume the responsibility of candling and grading and therefore prefer to do business only with licensed dealers. Thus, to protect his market, the farmer may desire to become licensed. Stanard cautioned farmers, however, to be sure their facilities are adequate for them to operate as a licensee—which includes the maximum 60 degree provision after candling.

Atomic Energy Is Now

Source of 150,000 Jobs
The infant atomic energy industry, which came into being little more than a decade ago, has already become an important element in the nation's job picture, according to data compiled by the U. S. Department of Labor. Technological breakthroughs will enhance the future potential greatly, it is stated.

The Labor Department estimated that there were more than 150,000 jobs, ranging from mining to scientific research, in all phases of atomic energy activity in the spring of last year. About three out of every four of these workers were employed by the Atomic Energy Commission and its operations and construction contractors.

cited several unsolved problems such as lack of incentive pay for superior teachers and inadequate starting pay for heads of families. Also, although most teachers reach top salary within 15 years, they frequently have many working years left before retirement age.

Honor C. J. Cermak Jr. At Realtors Banquet With Office and Gift

Charles Cermak, Jr., Antioch, was re-elected as a member of the board of directors of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors at the annual meeting this week at the Elks Club in Waukegan.

Dan McGaughey of Grayslake was elected president.

Rep. W. J. Murphy and Judge Bernard Decker, speakers, interspersed their remarks with many humorous quips, particularly in reference to Director Cermak and the "triple tax deductions" he and Mrs. Cermak gained in late 1957.

Cermak was honored to receive from Secretary-Treasurer Leech on behalf of the board his 1958 dues paid in full with the stipulation that he use the $50 "to treat his wife to a good time."

Cermak has been on the board four years.

Funeral Here Monday For Charles Greenwald Of Bristol Township

Charles Greenwald, 57, Bristol township, Wis., died at 8:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 24 at the home of his brother-in-law, Henry Paasch. Death was unexpected and came following a heart attack.

Born Jan. 8, 1901 in Randall township, near Wilmot, Mr. Greenwald lived in Waukegan from 1923 to 1943, and the rest of his life in Kenosha county, Wis. He was employed as a farm laborer.

Surviving relatives include two daughters, Mrs. Janet Bock, Winthrop Harbor, and Mrs. Phyllis Burgess, Norfolk, Va.; four brothers, Albert of Elkhorn, Wis. and Joseph, Clarence, and Elmer, all of Salem; six sisters, Mrs. Mary White of New Munster, Elsie Paasch of Wilmot, Mrs. Ida Krahn of Salem, Mrs. Bertha Van Alstine of Kenosha, Theresa Paasch of Bristol, and Mrs. Rita Holtdorf of Rehor, and three grandchildren.

The funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. R. P. Otto of Peace Evangelical Lutheran church in charge. Burial was in Pine View cemetery near Zion.

Cold in the South, Too

Believing they were getting away from the snow and cold of the north, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shepard and Kansas City friends driving south found themselves snowed in for two days at Tacarami, N. M., and when they got to Phoenix, Ariz., they found the weather so cold they decided to go on to Mexico in search of balmy breezes. People wintering in Florida find the weather there rather uncomfortable too at times.

Wilmot Loses 13th Game

The Wilmot High School basketball team suffered its 13th straight loss at the hands of Lake Geneva on its home floor this week.

The final score was 54-28.

The portland Oregonian reports that more than a quarter—$50 billion out of a total of $191 billion in the year ending last March—of our retail spending was accounted for by automobiles. It cites an American Automobile Association calculation that the cost of owning a low-priced car which is bought new and driven 10,000 miles a year comes to $952 a year. The biggest item is depreciation—$602.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the Eastern Star, our friends and neighbors for the many cards, flowers and acts of kindness shown during our recent bereavement, due to the death of my father.

Mrs. El Roy Anderson and family.

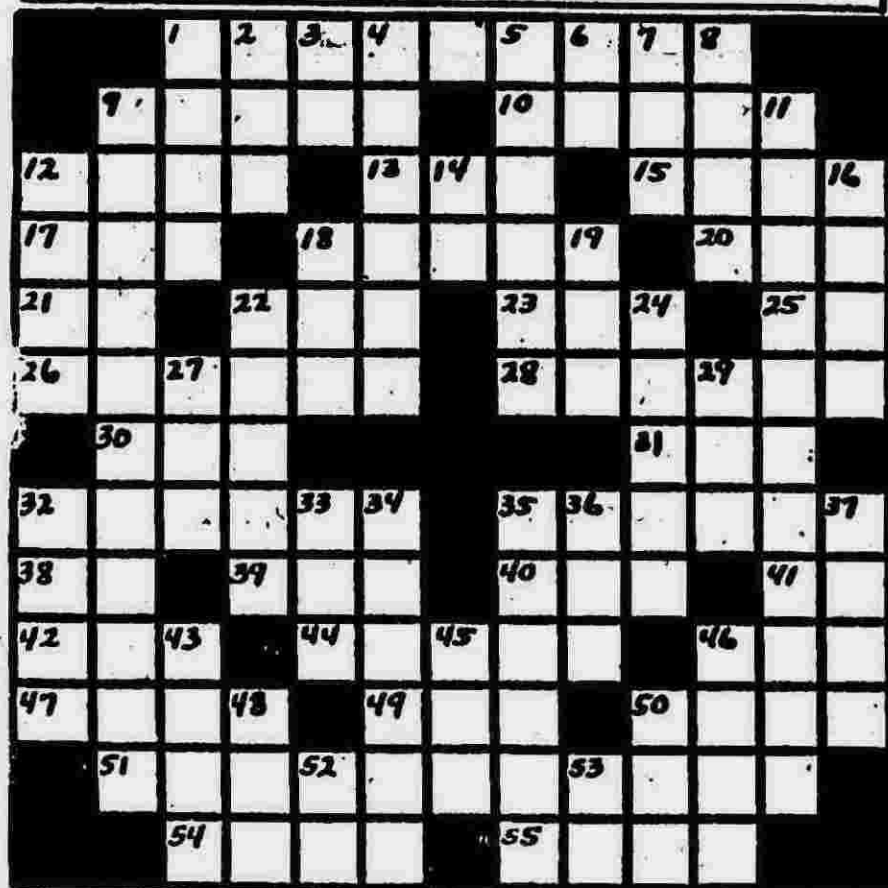

The Antioch News and Antioch Theatre invite John Blackman, 281 Chestnut St., Antioch, Ill., and one to attend Sunday, Monday or Tuesday showing of "Legend of the Lost" at the Antioch Theatre.

View Results of Their Church Project

Puzzle solution on page 6

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—(Galatians 6, 8.)

Each of us who has grown to maturity knows only too well that the bad things we have thought and done live on, if only in our dreams, to haunt and plague us. But, likewise, the good things we think and do live on to bless us—sometimes in unexpected ways when we most need comfort.

GEMS OF THOUGHT REWARD

The reward of one duty is the power to fulfill another.—George Coleridge.

Perhaps the reward of the spirit who tries is not the goal but the exercise.—E. V. Cooke

The reward of a thing well done, to to have done it.—Emerson.

Consciousness of right-doing brings its own reward; but not amid the smoke of battle is merit seen and appreciated by lookers-on.—Mary Baker Eddy

No man, who continues to add something to the material, intellectual, and moral well being of the place in which he lives, is left long without proper reward.—Booker T. Washington.

Seems like every time history repeats itself, the price goes UP.

Millburn Mutual Has Good Report for Year, Re-elects Officers

The Millburn Mutual Insurance Co. re-elected officers and heard a pleasing report on the company's business for the year, in the 103rd annual meeting at Millburn Tuesday.

The fire losses for the year were less than normal and the company wrote a half million dollars more business, Robert Denman, secretary, said.

The officers for the ensuing year are: Eric E. Anderson, Wadsworth, president; Howard J. Bonner, vice president; Robert Denman, secretary; Carl Hughes, treasurer; and Frank Cremin, director for three years. Officers besides Anderson have Lake Villa post office addresses.

The company already is planning a big all-day meeting for January 17 next year at which the 104th anniversary will be observed.

Waukegan Minister Speaks

The Rev. Harold McElvany, pastor of the First Methodist church in Waukegan, addressed church school teachers, staff members and workers of the Antioch Methodist church Tuesday evening at a recognition dinner.

Little Variation in Weather Past Week; Light Snow Continues

Temperatures ranging between 17 and 34 degrees above zero during the past week with daily snow varying from mere flurries to a half inch beyond the big 11-inch snow of last week made the weather rather monotonous in this area.

Forecast of the same kind of weather the rest of the week was given yesterday and the probability is that the month will end with a total of 15-inches of snow equal to 1.5-inch precipitation.

The temperature for the past week and snowfall, according to Co-operative Observer Roy Kufalk was:

Date	Max.	Min.	Show	Precip.
Jan. 24	34	17	T	T
Jan. 25	34	25	T	T
Jan. 26	33	25	2	2
Jan. 27	32	26	1	1
Jan. 28	29	23	T	T
Jan. 29	27	20	T	T

Total snowfall 2 inches, snow on ground 15 inches.

Home From Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Oftedahl brought their daughter, Laura, 4, home Saturday from Augustana hospital, Chicago, where she underwent eye surgery. She was returned to the hospital today to have stitches removed, and it will be known then the success of the operation.

Ice Skating Party

The Grass Lake Scout Home group will hold their annual ice skating party from 1:00 to 5:00 Sunday afternoon, Feb. 2. The party will be held back of Grass Lake School and refreshments will be served at the Scout home.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all my friends who sent me birthday cards on my birthday. It sure was a surprise, and made me very happy.

Regards to you all.

Thank you!
